Indymedia Ireland's Chekov Village Magazine Exclusive: Jim Cusack Ate My Hamster

Kevin Chekov "Chekov" (I know that annoys someone) Feeney, head honcho at Indymedia Ireland, and rising MSM media whore, is writing for Vincent Browne's ludicrous Village Magazine - that piece of leftist, cretino-liberalist, pseudo-conscientious, vanity headwank tripe piling up on the shelves of SPAR and Students' Union shops throughout Village Idiot contributors include SWP newspaper editor and Trainers Boy Rory Hearn worrying about deprivation in Knackaragua, motor-mouthed yank Harry "former-Microsoft/former Irish Times /former IAWM" Browne bellyaching about his former employers in D'Olier Street, John "Where's My Batman Outfit?" Waters, and a bunch of other "luvvies" from the same old tiresome Irish media celeb clique (can Tom McGurk and Anne Marie Hourihane hold out?) helping out the opera-loving Vincenzo before the whole rotten shebang goes belly up.

Village Magazine is a shoddily assembled, poorly edited publication. It looks like it was knocked together by Vincent Browne in the early hours of the morning and was proofread by Shane McGowan (tip: spellchecking utilities will get confused by the similarity of "heroin" and "heroin" - you need to look at the screen). The average Irish student magazine would leave it in the half-penny place.

"Chekov" Feeney's column is called "Newspaper Watch". He castigates security correspondent Jim Cusack of the Sunday Independent over Cusack's "elaborate tale" about the Dennis Donaldson murder, and the lack of proof therein. Similar swipes are taken at the Irish Times and Irish Independent.

So let's take a look at what Feeney's own little operation, Indymedia.ie, had to say about the matter - with the Indymedia Ireland story, Denis Donaldson shot dead:

The murder of Denis Donaldson demonstrates yet again that the criminal mafia of Sinn Fein/IRA has not gone away.

Denis Donaldson was a piece of shit - the British would have had all the justification in the world to knock him off years ago - but they had greater justification to use him instead as an asset to disrupt the IRA's terror campaign.

The dogs in the street know that Sinn Fein/IRA killed him in revenge for his collaboration.

I'll make this simple.

Donegal is in the jurisdiction of Michael mc Dowell. He carries ultimate responsibility for the advice given to the deceased in the final weeks of his life. Why was it not suggested to him to go elsewhere? (Colombia for example).

Yet it is the Taoiseach Bertie Ahern's words that are reported in international news confirming that the dead man had been told of the serious risk his life was in by the Gardaí. The Taoiseach speaks for the Gardaí now, because this is an important case. Where is big swinging Mickey?

Why did the Minister of justice of Ireland not order garda protection or similar security measures considering the sensitivity of this particular case?

Maybe we should ask CJ Haughey on his deathbed for the list of contacts of known radical and armed elements in the "republican party" FF.

Let's blame the government instead.
That's what you get when Bertie is all sentimental for the warriors of 1916.

Cock Robin is dead. & it was Mc Dowell and Ahern's fault.

let that be a lesson to ye all.

Nick Cohen: Pretty Straight Guys on Martin Niemöller's words, so often misquoted and misappropriated on Indymedia Ireland:

"Versions of Niemöller words have been quoted by Hugh Heffner when he was fighting the banning of Playboy by 7-11 stores, anti-abortionists and the Massachusetts Association of Underwriters when it was protesting against regulation of the insurance industry ('The came first for the disability market'). Just before the Iraq war (in 2003), a London publisher issued a book of 101 anti-war poems and included Pastor Niemöller's text. It wasn't a poem. Nor was it a particularly good rallying cry for the peace movement when it could be recast as 'First they came for the Kurds, but I was not a Kurd, so I said nothing. Then they came for the Marsh Arabs but I was not a Marsh Arab, - so I did nothing...'

It is quite clear a ... political deal has been made in Northern Ireland - both the IRA and British no longer needed Donaldson - he was an embarrassment to them both - for the IRA that for twenty years he ran rings around them - for the British that their dirty tricks for 30 years would finally be exposed.

An "unauthorised" killing by supposed "dissidents" will be the most likely explanation.

Sinn Fein/IRA have sold out the capitalism - evident by the property portfolio of well known members.

Fianna Fail will form a coalition with them after the next election and both can cosy up to the Brits and the Americans - to join in global capitalism and corporate greed.

The trail leads directly to the Israeli embassy - the oil corporations are making oil deals with newly compliant Libya - the removal of Saddam prompted Gaddafi to give up his WMD - and Donaldson new all about terrorist training the North African deserts - he had to go.

The revolution has been sold.

an ironic end. arms put beyond use

To automatically blame the IRA is pathetic considering he worked for a secret service whom he could damage and has already damaged. The IRA wouldn't be so stupid to execute him at this point although he is better off dead as he couldn't show his face anywhere on this island. Go and read some more of the paper called the Irish/British Independent biased piece of rubbish..

Dogs in the Street, Mossad, Haughey, McDowell....no "elaborate tales" there, then, huh?

Does "Chekov" Feeney have a problem with contributing to Village Magazine, a profit-making venture, run by Vincent Browne, a pillar of the Irish MSM and the same guy who also writes in the Sunday Business Post, and the Irish Times, and has his own tiresome hectoring talk show on national radio, sometimes rehashing crap between the lot? No, of course not.

"Chekov" Feeney makes no attempt to declare his interest in media matters or his involvement with the WSM, Indymedia Ireland, or his previous clash with Cusack on an Irish radio show (this rehashing business must be catching) in the article. Nor are we told that his father is the Evening Herald MSM columnist John Feeney who perished in an aircraft crash along with others from the Irish MSM, as they raced to bring back the first Beaujolais nouveau wine from France. The Evening Herald is now published by Independent News and Media (CEO Sir Anthony O'Reilly), also responsible for er, the Sunday Independent and Irish Independent.

Maybe our brave Stasi leader is tiring of the Indymedia.ie circus - and who would blame him with 17 editors now on board (and counting)? Notwithstanding, "Chekov" Feeney should either write for Village Magazine or run /write for Indymedia.ie (to his credit, he's the 1 of IMC "Photographer" who contributed greatly to the coverage of the Love Ulster Riots). But not both.

The others on the IMC editorial board should ask him to stand down or clarify his position. It would be too much to ask of Village Magazine to ask him to do the same. Given Vinnie's track record, "Chekov's" days of whoring at brownnosers central are limited anyway.

Indymedia Ireland's Limos and Vans for Bush at Shannon Turn out to be Weapons for Chavez

Armed Russian Mi-17 Troop Transports in Chechnya

There is not a single piece of evidence connecting Ireland to "extraordinary rendition" flights. None. But there is now plenty of evidence that the Russians are abusing Irish neutrality to supply military hardware to headcase demagogue Venezuelan dictator, the thick-necked, and hideous Hugo Chavez, through Shannon airport in Ireland:

"The Irish Independent can reveal that on February 20 an Antonov cargo plane, registration number UR-82027, landed at Shannon with a cargo of Russian-made Mi-17 helicopters bound for Venezuela.

The helicopters were part of a consignment of 33 which Venezuela bought from Russia.

The overall consignment includes 20 Mi-17s, primarily used as a troop transport; 10 Mi-35s assault helicopters, which can also be used to transport troops; and three Mi-26Ts. The latter are the heaviest and most powerful helicopters in the world.

Transport Minister Martin Cullen confirmed that Russia has been using Shannon to send military helicopters to Venezuela. "

And what do Indymedia Ireland have to say about this? Nada.

Will we see Edward Horgan and the other ninnies protesting about the US military's use of Shannon Airport now calling for a stop of the shipment of weapons from Russia to the fat Venezuelan dictator bum-chum of cocaine addict Maradona and human rights abuser, Castro? Will we fuck.

The Irish Independent has blown a huge hole in the posturing of medal-stomping buffoons like Horgan and the Black Shamrock shower. This plane was carrykng the same helicopters used by the Russians in Afghanistan and more recently in Chechnya where thousands of civilians are being killed (Mi-17), and are part of a shipment that includes the same helicopters than Saddam Hussein used to carry out chemical attacks against his own people (Mi-24/35).

Don't expect this aspect of the "revolution" to be televised on RTE in the form of a pisspoor documentary by trendy lefty chavista tokers from Ireland, either. Instead, expect the usual "No Pasaran" shouting from the usual suspects about the choppers being needed to protect the revolution and the Venezuelan people from US Imperialism.

The whole notion of these idiot Indymedia Ireland moaners at Shannon know the difference between one plane and another is laughable anyway. We know that Ed Horgan not only can't count but hasn't a clue about the difference between a drop tank and a long range fuel tank, thinks tanks fire "bombs", and that daisy-cutter munitions weigh a couple of thousand pounds. But the incompetence of the others is astounding - they thought the Antonovs were bringing George Bush to Ireland:

"The officer in Charge of Shannon Gardai Station and Security at Shannon Airport, Inspector Tom Kennedy was seen patrolling the area with an other (unknown to me) Inspector in an unmarked car and a Superintendent was driving around in an other unmarked car. Having such esteemed high ranking members driving around the industrial estate can only mean that the security operation is spearheaded by a Chief Superintendent or even a Asistant Commisionor at least and indeed the US President will land at Shannno tonight.

Earlier today two massive Russian built Antonov 124:000 cargo planes landed at Shannon Airport offloading two black jeeps and a black limousine.

Go figure...

More Indymedia Ireland Stasi Suppression of Truth

Indymedia Ireland editorial lists show that the editorial Stasi's "Boy's Club" that run this little shop of horrors are now stepping up censorship efforts by 1) shutting off commenting, 2) introducing "airbrushing" of stories, and 3) treating to report people not only to their ISP but to their bosses!

Of course, "Chekov", the Dear Leader of this Doertatorship of Dicks is the prime mover of such progressiveness. To wit:

Yes, folks, an anonymous contributor has put a name to the following individual, hence winning our competition:

Indymedia Ireland: Fail to Highlight "Infantile, Exploitative, Cheap and Fascist" Criticism of Black Shamrock Shower by Derry Artists

Well, Shane O'Curry of the WSM called for contributions to vandalise their work on Indymedia Ireland, and it's backfired.

Not that Indymedia Ireland will publicise it, so we will:

The Bogside Artists, who have produced 12 murals in an area of Derry that witnessed the Battle of the Bogside and Bloody Sunday, condemned the placing of the black shamrock insignia on one of their murals.

A mural entitled The Petrol Bomber had a black shamrock affixed to the image in recent days.

However, the Bogside Artists said that the altering of a mural to promote a political message went against the ethos of their work: “This mural is simply about 30 years of conflict in the North. To try and gain publicity for a political cause is cheap and fascist,” Tom Kelly, one of the three Bogside Artists, said.

“We are not precious about our work. This has been a 12-year project and has depended solely on the support of the people. The people have always been consulted. In this case no one was asked. Personally we would be supportive of an anti-war campaign, the rear of Free Derry Wall has been used for such purposes in the past.

“What has happened here has not been discussed or debated – no consent was sought. Whoever did this is infantile and exploitative – these murals were paid for by the people and we have taken great pains to consult them down the years and gain their consent. The consent of the people has not been sought here,” Mr Kelly said.

Biggest laugh we've had in ages!

Indymedia Ireland's Black Shamrock Campaign a Total Disaster

After all the huffing and puffing about "the Black Shamrock" on Indymedia Ireland by Indymedia Ireland's fellow travellers, the WSM, a grand total of one exists in Dublin. I expect that's only slightly less than the WSM's membership.

Here it is - beside the Central Bank in Dame Street. Owners of the said building or Dublin City Council should see our previous posting to find out where to send the bill for its removal.

Even worse, their attempt to draw their little ditty elsewhere has raised the ire of people that I personally would not like to mess with...

What a bunch of idiots!

We first commented on this secret Chumpsy Love-In a while ago.

Still, I expect it does take time to airbrush out all the faces of the people who attended - like Aileen, Shane, James, Kevin, Alan, Laurance, Andrew, (e-mail me for the rest) in case their parents see them, er, I mean, it might be useful to the Repressive State Apparatus.

Remember, we've cash prizes going for pictures of the Stasi.

Indymedia Ireland: Portray McDowell as Nazi While Using Nigger Joke

I see the amateur "Let's Make Them All Look Like Nazis" Photoshop department at Indymedia Ireland have been in action again.

After all the uproar about McDowell comparing Richard Bruton with Dr Goebbels, the cretino-left still have no problem in coming up with little doodles like this one:

Of course, it's not the first time that these artistes have portrayed certain people as Nazis... but read the accompanying article:

Our Racist Nation

And why not use racist language to make the point that McDowell is a Nazi? Makes perfect sense, doesn't it?

"A nigger walks into a bar and orders a pint of Guinness, the bartender politely but firmly tells him that this pub caters for whites only. The nigger is dumbfounded and angry and roars at the bartender, "You fucking paddies are all the fucking same! Racist bastards!"

"Is the nigger right? Who cares? Fuck him. At least we didn't arrest him for calling us 'paddies.' His nigger buddies back home wouldn't have been so lenient with him. Sure isn't that why he came over here, he wanted to get away from niggers himself. So what's his fucking problem when we exhibit the same tendency?"

"It's funny how just about anything can be rationalised and made plausible isn't it? "

Indymedia Ireland: Anarchist Protesters Saturday Video Omits "We Support The Dublin Riot" Chant

Those of you who want a good laugh at what Ireland's middle-class

"radical" yooof and their English blow-in friends got up to in Dublin last Saturday, while their sheepskin coat-wearing daddies and Brown Thomas-clad mummies ordered the Filipina maid to prepare the sushi and smoked salmon for their Ireland's Triple Crown Rugby Party in Foxrock, should check out the latter half of the Indymedia Ireland video:

vid from anarchist block at 18th

See how many of the usual suspects you can recognize, including the speaker with the Black Shamrock on his hat who says that Bertie Ahern is a "moron chihuahua" who "licks the balls of his master"

When the Workers Revolution Comes We'll All Be Able To Have An iPod Like Dr Groove's

The Irish Times (March 20, 2006) reported that "About 600 people chanted anti-war slogans, except for a small group of anarchists who shouted 'We support the Dublin riot', a reference to the disturbances in the city on February 25th."

Of course, the soundtrack on this amateurish piece of video doesn't contain that - only the decidedly Dublin 4 and 6 accented chant of "One, Two, Three, Four, We Don't Wont Your Fockin' Wor" and "Foive, Six, Sevon, Eight, Orgonize to Smosh the State" part.

Here's some stills from said video. Anyone who can give me a name of the bozo speaking and taking his sound system for a walk in a shopping cart wins 20 Euro (see terms and conditions). The ones of the little turds nervously scribbling with washable chalk on the pavement in front of the Garda's boots had me cracking up...

Indymedia Ireland Write to Google to Ask Them
NOT to Index Article

I can just imagine the laughs in the Google office as they composed this reply to someone on Indymedia Ireland:

"Hi Miriam,

Thank you for your reply. We recognize your concern, but there is nothing that Google can do to remove the article without the cooperation of the site's webmaster.

Google simply aggregates information already published on the web. Even if we were able to eliminate the offending page from our index, it would still exist on the web. Every few weeks our robots crawl the web for content. If the site is available on the internet, we will likely pick it up and add it to our index again. Only the webmaster can, by including code that blocks our robots, prevent a page from appearing on Google. For more information about our Terms of Service, please visit http://www.google.com/terms_of_service.html

If the webmaster grants your request, our search results will display this change after we next crawl the site. Once this information has been removed, let us know and we'll be happy to expedite the removal of the cached copy.

We are sorry that we cannot be of more immediate assistance in this matter.

Regards,
The Google Team"

So the proposal now made to the editorial list? Block Google

- but only for the article in question:

"I am therefore asking for Indymedia to implement a code to block the google robots picking up on this article. This will be directly relevant to the problem that SG has been caused and yet preserve the article on Indymedia for all those who would yet have their pound of flesh.
